

Research Fellowship in Art Conservation

The TECHN&ART unit is offering a research fellowship in art conservation. As a research fellow, you will work closely with our researchers, applying advanced methodologies to preserve and restore artworks. Your work will contribute to the enhancement of artistic and cultural heritage, ensuring its preservation for future generations.